

David Delany

Artist and Educator

495 Elwood
Oakland, Ca 94610
(510) 480-9460
delany40@gmail.com

CURRENT EXPERIENCE

Artist / Illustrator, Oakland — painter / sculptor 30+ years of art making and showing

Spanish Speaking Citizens' Foundation, Oakland — volunteer / english teacher

Living Improv, Oakland — improvisation workshop

Rockridge Chorale, Oakland — choral singing

MBSR Mindfulness Practices, Oakland — self-guided exploration of meditation and other awareness enhancing practices

PAST EXPERIENCE

Public School Art Educator, Santa Barbara — art teacher elementary and high school levels, some adult workshops

Logistics for the Department of Elections, San Francisco, distributing and collecting polling equipment, lead driver

EDUCATION

University of California, Santa Barbara — B.A. Liberal Studies Degree 1989

Merritt College, Oakland — Landscape Design Certificate

PUBLISHING PROJECTS

“An Indian Holiday” - illustrated booklet on the topic of mindfulness with illustration from a journey to India.

“ The Reluctant Pilgrim” - an illustrated travel memoir of a six month exploration of Advaita Vedanta { Hindu philosophy)

SKILLS

Spanish Speaker

Artist/Design

Computer literate

Organized

Good Listener

Careful Driver

Polite